CHARLES K. JOHNS,
Defendant/Petitioner

STATE'S RESPONSE TO RULE-32 PETITION

Comes now the State, by and through the undersigned Assistant District Attorney, and hereby makes it response to the Rule-32 Petition for relief filed by the Petitioner, Charles Johns, and says as follows:

1. The Petitioner basically alleges ineffective assistance of counsel, the response to said allegations is included in the Affidavit of attorney, Thomas Brantley.
2. The Petitioner's allegation concerning jurisdiction of the Court are based on issues of fact, not legal jurisdictional issues and are due to be disregarded.
3. The Petitioner is precluded from raising issues of facts, that were known or should have been known, that could have been, but was not, raised on appeal.
4. The Petitioner's allegations are all due to be denied.
